

Room 19

Cosy House Room

Located in the oldest part of our original 17th-century building, Room 19 is packed with quirk and character. Its very slanted staircase leads up to a tricky low entrance that means getting to your room is all part of the adventure! It also offers a great view across our private walled garden.

